

Dear Colleagues,

I am reaching out to you as the Chairman of EUROSOIL2025 regarding the upcoming official meeting of the European Confederation of Soil Science Societies (ECSSS). This event will be held in Seville, one of Spain's most beautiful cities, from September 8th to 12th, 2025.

We expect over 2,000 scientists and industry professionals to attend, making this the largest Soil Sciences event in Europe and one of the most prestigious conferences in the field. Additionally, a EUROSOIL EXPO will be organized, offering an excellent opportunity for networking, business interactions, and meeting potential customers in your areas of interest.

I am pleased to announce that abstract submission and registration are now open and available online.
