Call for Nominations for the Green Public Leadership Award for Public Entities

The Environment and Resources Authority (ERA) is pleased to launch the ERA Awards 2025, celebrating contributions to environmental sustainability efforts in Malta. These awards recognise individuals, businesses, voluntary organisations, public entities, and educational institutions driving positive environmental change.

The award categories include the:

Buonamico Award – Recognising individuals whose contributions to academia, entities, and authorities in the environmental field have been valuable yet often undervalued.

Special Recognition Award – Honouring individuals who act as catalysts of change in the green transition.

Corporate Award for Environmental Innovation and Sustainability by the Private Sector – Acknowledging businesses implementing innovations and sustainability initiatives that go beyond regulatory requirements.

Environmental Stewardship Award for Voluntary Organisations – Recognising voluntary organisations leading impactful environmental initiatives.

Green Public Leadership Award for Public Entities – Rewarding public entities that lead by example in environmental sustainability.

Green School Scheme for Educational Institutions and Learning Programmes – Supporting educational institutions fostering sustainability through green projects.

The Green Public Leadership Award for Public Entities, is a special opportunity to celebrate and recognize outstanding projects and initiatives led by public organizations in their commitment to environmental sustainability. This award honours efforts in green practices such as waste reduction, reuse and recycling, and sustainable mobility initiatives. All public entities are being invited to submit nominations and share the work being done to lead by example to create a more sustainable future. Details on the eligibility and selection criteria and how to apply for this award and the others are available on era.org/era-awards.
